

Ron is a direct descendant of the original founders of Oakland in 1699. As a life-long resident, he has seen this community grow through the hand and involvement of a long line of Romaines. Even the graveyard of the Church on the Green in Hackansack contains the graves of many of his storied relatives.